

Dara V. Rose

FULL AUTHOR & SPEAKER BIO

Dara V. Rose is a Christian author, Bible teacher, speaker, and founder of 12 Cups of Grace. Through her ministry and publishing imprint, Rosebud Publishing, she creates Scripture-centered studies and reflective resources that help people slow down, understand God's Word, and apply biblical truth to everyday life. Her heart is to make space for honest questions, steady growth, and grace for every season.

Dara is the author and narrator of Born for This Name: A Journey Through Family, Faith, and Finding My Voice, released in August 2026. Written over ten years, the memoir reflects on family, grief, silence, healing, and identity. Her story reminds readers that God remains present even when His work is difficult to see. She often returns to a simple message: You are not alone.

Her Bible teaching experience spans adults, youth, and senior learners. She has taught at Bethlehem House of Bread and Indiana Christian University, along with church and community settings. Dara has spoken at women's conferences, worship gatherings, and retreats. Her published Bible-study resources cover books from Genesis through 2 Kings. In 2026, she developed Dinah: Restoring What Was Silenced, a four-week self-paced Bible study with lessons, reflection activities, and guided prayer.

Alongside her ministry work, Dara brings experience from higher education, including college student-success teaching and coaching. She holds a bachelor's degree from Kentucky State University and is completing a Master of Science in Instructional Design and Technology, expected in November 2026. That background shapes her learner-centered approach to teaching Scripture.

Dara lives in the Midwest with her family. Through 12 Cups of Grace, she continues to invite others to sip, reflect, grow, and take the time they need.
